DOCTOR WHO since 1966, this one featuring a cyborg gunslinger.

Later in the season a new companion, played by Jenna Louise-Coleman, joins The Doctor in time-spanning and galaxy-crossing adventures. Steven Moffiff, executive producer and lead writer, says he chose Louise-Coleman as the new companion because “she worked the best alongside Smith and could talk faster than him.”

And what of Matt Smith, who portrays the centuries-old alien, buffeted about in time and space? “This is the guy who makes us laugh over fish sticks and custard, but then breaks our hearts when he’s losing his friends,” says one reviewer.

DOCTOR WHO

Expect action, nano-particle clouds, Daleks revealed, and a poignant character in a big surprise when Season 7 opens with “Asylum of the Daleks.” Kidnapped and forced to go to a planetary prison populated by insane Daleks, The Doctor along with Amy and Rory, whose relationship is in meltdown, are up to their necks in trouble.

And that’s just the beginning of this new season with Matt Smith as The Doctor, Karen Gillan as Amy, and Arthur Darvill as Rory. “How much trouble are we in?” asks Rory. “Out of 10 — 11,” says The Doctor.

In other episodes look for dinosaurs on a space ship and the first American-styled Western.

Airs Saturdays, new season begins August 3 at 11:00 p.m. MT/PT

International vocal stars Josh Groban and Audra McDonald are featured this month in Friday evening encore presentations from earlier this year. And each show has an added bonus. Josh Groban: All That Echoes (August 9 at 9:00 p.m. MT/PT) includes a Web-only opportunity to pledge support to Idaho Public Television and obtain tickets to the crossover star’s concert in Boise this fall. IdahoPTV has a limited number of tickets to Groban’s live performance October 2 at 7:30 p.m. in Taco Bell Arena. On August 9 pledges can be made at idahoptv.org beginning shortly before the show airs.

All That Echoes, which originally aired in April, shines the spotlight on the singer whose versatility ranges from opera to pop and everything in between. Groban’s televised concert features select favorites spanning his career, including his 2001 breakout song, “You Raise Me Up.”

On August 30 at 10:00 p.m. MT/PT LIVE FROM LINCOLN CENTER host and five-time Tony Award winner Audra McDonald takes the stage in her own 90-minute Tony Award-winning special, Audra McDonald in Concert: Go Back Home. The bonus? Thirty additional minutes of footage to the original program that aired in May. In Go Back Home McDonald sings personal favorites including selections from her new album of the same name.
Sunday evenings continue to be a drama lover’s delight as two new MASTERPIECE MYSTERY! productions — one a new interpretation of a Hitchcock classic, the other a modern courtroom miniseries — air this month.

In The Lady Vanishes (August 18), a young socialite named Iris Carr (Tuppence Middleton; Inspector Lewis) is traveling on a train and suspects foul play when a woman she meets on her trip inexplicably disappears. Soon after Iris boards the train she befriends a woman known only as “Miss Froy” (Selina Cadell; Doc Martin). After Iris falls asleep she awakens to find Miss Froy missing and her fellow passengers denying she ever existed. Is Iris going mad or did the encounter really take place? Iris’ certitude takes on the appearance of madness, and she finds herself struggling for her sanity — and for her life.

This new adaptation of the classic thriller, made famous by Alfred Hitchcock and based on Ethel Lina White’s 1936 novel The Wheel Spins, also stars Keeley Hawes (Upstairs Downstairs) and Tom Hughes (Page Eight). The following week is the premiere of Silk, a fast-paced legal drama that follows the rivalries, passions and intrigues of Martha Costello (Maxine Peake; Little Dorrit) and Clive Reader (Rupert Penry-Jones; MI-5).

Written by Peter Moffat, the three-part miniseries airs August 25-September 8. Martha is a brilliant, passionate defense barrister. Hardworking and dedicated, she has a reputation for defending the poor and downtrodden, firmly believing all are innocent until proven guilty. She is about to embark on the next step of her career and apply to become Queen’s Counsel and the official silk gown or court dress that comes with it. If she’s successful, she’ll be considered one of the top barristers in her field.

But Martha is not the only one at her chambers applying. Joining her is Clive — charming, ruthless, gifted and dangerous. Only one is likely to be made QC, so how they perform in court is vital.

Over the course of the series, Martha faces challenging cases and surprising clients.

DIALOGUE’s 20th season continues this month beginning August 2 with the rescheduled airing of Good Summer Reading for 2013. The show, featuring Idaho authors Mike Medberry and Jo Deurbrouck, was originally scheduled to open the show’s new season in July, but was pre-empted for host Marcia Franklin’s interview with anti-tax activist Grover Norquist.

August’s other shows feature repeats of Franklin’s “Conversations From the Sun Valley Writers’ Conference” from 2012: Jackson Hole, Wyoming, author Alexandra Fuller (August 9); author and former New York Times journalist Amy Waldman (August 16); reporter, writer and 2011 Pulitzer Prize finalist S.C. Gwynne (August 23); and Palestinian-American poet, essayist, novelist and teacher Naomi Shihab Nye (August 30).
Along with two other films that commemorate the civil rights movement, THE MARCH, a Robert Redford-produced documentary about the historic March on Washington, airs Tuesday, August 27 — the eve of the event’s 50th anniversary — at 8:00 p.m. MT/PT.

The March on Washington culminated in Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s iconic “I Have A Dream” speech. Rarely seen footage from that day on Aug. 28, 1963, will be prominently featured in the documentary.

The film will focus on King’s speech and the events that led up to the March on Washington with interviews from those who were there and helped organize it. Over 250,000 people gathered on the National Mall to see King give his stirring address.

“The story of people who suffered profound injustice in America and fought it with sacrifice and courage is something we should never forget,” Redford said in a press release. “I hope the generations who see this film will be inspired by it.”

THE MARCH is preceded at 8:00 p.m. MT/PT by

Idaho Public TV Schedule

50th Anniversary

An encore presentation of IN PERFORMANCE AT THE WHITE HOUSE: A Celebration of Music from the Civil Rights Movement.

Following THE MARCH is an INDEPENDENT LENS encore presentation: The Powerbroker: Whitney Young’s Fight for Civil Rights at 10:00 p.m. MT/PT.

Trans-Siberian Orchestra

Airs Friday, August 9, at 10:00 p.m. MT/PT

Since it first hit the stage, Trans-Siberian Orchestra has grown into one of the largest touring acts in the world by incorporating classical, orchestral and symphonic elements into hard rock and heavy metal while delivering a massive light show of lasers, pyrotechnics, moving trusses and video screens all synchronized to music.

Now TSO creator Paul O’Neill presents the past, present and future of the orchestra through live video and interview segments taken over the last few years during its annual winter tour. TRANS-SIBERIAN ORCHESTRA: THE BIRTH OF ROCK THEATER includes two fan favorites — “Christmas Eve & Other Stories” and “Beethoven’s Last Night.”

During this televised concert viewers will have an opportunity to pledge support to Idaho Public Television and obtain tickets to TSO’s concert in Boise’s Taco Bell Arena on Thursday, November 21, at 7:30 p.m. The number of tickets is limited.

Three New Series Debut Next Month

I want to tell you about three new series that debut in September.

The first is an uplifting comedy-drama from the BBC about romance and second chances starring Derek Jacobi called LAST TANGO IN HALIFAX.

In the second we present an examination of the rich and varied history of Latinos in the United States in the six-hour series LATINO AMERICANS. My third pick for next month is a series that combines history and science to reveal family stories, GENEOLOGY ROADSHOW. In the six-part LAST TANGO IN HALIFAX, childhood sweethearts Alan (Jacobi) and Celia (Anne Reid), both widowed and in their 70s, fall for each other all over again when they are reunited after nearly 60 years. The celebratory tale of the power of love at any age is also a story about family — a family with baggage. Alan’s and Celia’s daughters, whose dysfunctional lives bring drama at every turn, would never dream of getting in the way of their parents’ happiness. But somehow they just can’t help themselves. The series airs Sundays at 8:00 p.m. MT/PT beginning September 8.

Similar to ANTIQUES ROADSHOW, GENEOLOGY ROADSHOW travels from city to city searching out the personal stories of Americans’ heritage. Follow a diverse cast of participants on an emotional journey that uncovers fascinating family stories. The programs feature individuals from Nashville, Austin, Detroit and San Francisco during the first season. It

1 Thursday

5:30 Nightly Business Report
6:00 PBS NewsHour
7:00 Doc Martin
“Out of the Woods” Mark Mylow is bitten by an adder and suffers a potentially fatal allergic reaction while camping with Al Large. Meanwhile Al’s father, Bert, attempts to spruce up his son’s new living quarters, and the beaches of North Cornwall are being stormed by legions of poisonous fish.

8:00 Outdoor Idaho
(*) “Salmon River Lodges & Legacies” This special travels the Salmon River, stopping each night at a historic lodge to meet the people who continue in the footsteps of hearty pioneers in the wild heart of Idaho. Each stop reveals a rich history. Rafters, guides, boat operators and residents all tell how they are drawn to the river repeatedly — or permanently.

9:00 Midsomer Murders
“Tale of Two Hamlets” As someone continues to eliminate members of the uppity Smythe-Webster family — including the actor’s uncle, a film producer — Barnaby and Troy must unravel the family feud. Part 2 of 2

10:00 Death in Paradise
Megan Talbot tells the police she has killed her husband. But when Richard and the team go to find the body, it has vanished only to be found later by a local boat crew. However even with Megan under arrest, something still does not sit right with Richard.

2 Friday

5:30 Nightly Business Report
6:00 PBS NewsHour
7:00 Washington Week With Gwen Ifill
7:30 Dialogue
(*) “Good Summer Reading 2013” Idaho authors Mike Medberry of Boise (On the Dark Side of the Moon: A Journey to Recovery) and Jo Deurbrouck of Idaho Falls (Anything Worth Doing) discuss books and reading with host Marcia Franklin. They also offer their picks for good summer reads. (Rpt. 8/4)

8:00 Scott & Bailey
The detectives arrest a woman on suspicion of the gruesome murder of her husband. Rachel and Janet investigate the couple’s involvement in homemade pornography. DCI Gill Murray worries that Rachel’s relationship with Nick might have endangered a case.

9:00 Great Performances
“Vienna Philharmonic Summer Night Concert 2013” The orchestra, led by guest conductor Lorin Maazel, presents its annual open-air concert in the gardens of Austria’s Imperial Schönbrunn Palace. Tenor Michael Schade is the featured soloist for this salute to Wagner and Verdi. Selections include music from the Metropolitan Opera’s La Forza del Destino and Isolde and Le Nozze di Figaro.

10:30 Architect Robert A.M. Stern: Presence of the Past
Head of a successful New York architectural firm with worldwide commissions, dean of architecture at Yale University and a prolific author, Stern bridges the divide in modern architecture — between the modernists and the traditionalists. The film explores Stern’s work in the context of architects who reject the past, those who embrace it, and those who pick and choose as the context requires.

3 Saturday

5:00/4:00 Moyers & Company
6:00/5:00 British Antiques Roadshow
“Saltaire 1” Fiona Bruce and the team head for Yorkshire where a packed house awaits at Saltaire’s Victoria Hall. Among the family treasures attracting the specialists’ attention are a doodle by Lowry worth a small fortune, two pieces purporting to have been owned by Napoleon, and the oldest bronze seen in the first 33 years of the show.

6:30/5:30 Rick Steves’ Europe
“Basque Country” Rick visits the proud and resilient Basque people’s homeland, which is split between France and Spain. From his base in San Sebastian, Rick tours the ancient Basque capital of Gernika, the dazzling Guggenheim Modern in Bilbao, and then crosses into France for more Basque Country charms. From tapas bars to lightning-fast jai alai games, he shares the experiences of Basque culture.

7:00 The Lawrence Welk Show
“Tribute to Jerome Kern” From the opening medley of “Who,” “I Won’t Dance,” “You Couldn’t Be Cuter,” and “Old Man River” to the closing number “Pick Yourself Up,” there is something for everyone in this celebration of Kern’s talent and versatility.

8:00 Are You Being Served?
“Up Captain Peacock” For a brief moment of glory, Captain Peacock receives executive privileges.

8:30 Keeping Up Appearances
Hyacinth volunteers to escort a retired commodore from the train to the Ladies Luncheon, planning to ingratiate herself with the guest.

9:00 As Time Goes By
Alistair realizes who he wants to spend his life with and that he should settle down. But despite his resolve, business dealings may still take precedence over romance.

9:30 The Cafe
“There’s No Place Like Home” Meet the characters of this warm, funny, observational series. Sarah, without a job or boyfriend, moves back home where her mother, Carol, owns a small seaside cafe, where her grandmother, Mary, also works. Colorful characters pop in and out, including Sarah’s old school friends.

10:00 The Red Green Show
“The Satellite Dish” Red maintains that women watch the world; men watch television. He demonstrates how to turn a discarded dashboard into the ultimate remote control.

10:30 My Family
“The Psyche of Mikey” Upon hearing that Michael is seeing a therapist, Ben and Susan become convinced their boy is in serious need of help. But when they go to the therapist’s office to sort things out, events conspire to leave them in need of help.

11:00 Doctor Who
“Asylum of the Daleks” Season 7’s adventures begin when The Doctor, Amy and Rory are individually kidnapped by the Daleks, who send them on an assignment the Daleks themselves are afraid to do. The Doctor and his companions find themselves on a prison planet for insane Daleks, who quickly close in on them. The Doctor realizes he must find an escape route to save their lives, and possibly the Ponds’ marriage.

12:00/— Austin City Limits
“Fleet Foxes/Joanna Newsom” Folk meets indie rock with the featured performers. Fleet Foxes draw... from the group’s latest album, Helplessness Blues. Joanna Newsom follows with her ethereal acid folk.

4 Sunday
5:00/4:00 Dialogue
(*) “Good Summer Reading 2013” (R from 8/2/2)
5:30/4:30 Charlie Rose – The Week
6:00/5:00 Great Old Amusement Parks
A true summer diversion, amusement parks offered an escape for the entire family before theme parks. This special visits Playland in Rye, New York; Holiday World in Santa Claus, Indiana; and Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk in California, where vacationers can still reach for the brass ring on the merry-go-round. The special also checks out some old wooden roller coasters and other classic rides. Rick Sebak narrates.

7:00 Outdoor Idaho
(*) “Salmon River Lodges & Legacies” (R from 8/1)
8:00 Call the Midwife
Returning from her stint at the London hospital, Jenny needs all her midwifery skill when she and Sister Evangelina assist at the birth of a baby born with spina bifida. The parents struggle to understand and accept their son’s condition. Jenny, who has never delivered a disabled child, struggles to accept the implications for the child’s future.

5 Monday
5:30 Nightly Business Report
6:00 PBS Newshour
7:00 Antiques Roadshow
“Biloxi, Mississippi” Host Mark L. Walberg discusses art inspired by the area landscape and its creatures while at the Walter Anderson Museum of Art. At the convention center, appraisers inspect a suit worn by Olivia de Haviland in a 1943 film, and four 1827 watercolor portraits attributed to a mysterious North Carolina-based artist, valued up to $60,000. Part 3 of 3

8:00 Flea Market Documentary
This documentary travels from the gigantic Rose Bowl Market in Pasadena, California, to the busy but modest-sized Eastern Market in Washington, D.C., talking with organizers, vendors, food merchants and shoppers. It celebrates the unusual people and the enticing things that can be found in these parking lots, fairgrounds, drive-ins, sidewalks or elsewhere, and reveals capitalism mixed with craziness.

9:00 Globe Trekker
(D) “Nigeria” From Lagos, the former capital, Adela Ucar journeys to Yoruba Land, thought to be the site of the Queen of Sheba’s tomb. She meets with witch doctors in Oyo, travels to historic walled cities, hunts for bargains in the ancient Kurmi Market, and encounters a rare mountain gorilla in Nigeria’s eastern highlands.

10:00 POV

explores the dramatic and little-known events inside a nuclear-armed Soviet submarine during the Cuban Missile Crisis. While politicians and other officials desperately seek a solution to the standoff, Vasili Arkhipov, an officer aboard the submarine, averts disaster by refusing to fire a nuclear torpedo. The program combines tense drama with eyewitness accounts and expert testimony about this critical Cold War event.

10:00 Cuban Missile Crisis: Three Men Go to War
In October 1962, the world teetered on the brink of nuclear holocaust. The film brings to life the three central characters — Kennedy, Castro and Kruschev — and explores how these powerful men fell into an abyss of their own making. It outlines the courage and luck required to climb out again.

9:00 The Truth About Exercise with Michael Mosley
Airs Tuesday, August 13, at 9:00 p.m. MT/PT

Young people in the United States are entering the youth justice system in shocking numbers. This has led people to wonder if there is a better way to deal with youth offenders and whether exposure to the system itself could in fact be perpetuating a life of crime. From cops to judges to families, many are urgently seeking alternatives to the juvenile justice system. This independent film examines many of the issues that plague that system.

On the other side of the world, modern New Zealand youth court has incorporated restorative principles of justice adapted from the roots of its indigenous Maori culture, bringing victims and offenders together among the community to resolve disputes. Focusing on rehabilitation more than punishment, New Zealand has set a successful precedent for youth justice around the globe.

Now a group of juvenile justice leaders in Baltimore turns to the wisdom of the Maori for a possible solution. Using theories behind basic human emotions, the group adapts the Maori model and starts a process that facilitates community conferences as a youth justice alternative — giving hope to those disgruntled with a broken system in Baltimore.

The Life of Muhammad

Airs Tuesday, August 20, at 8:00 p.m. MT/PT

Taking a journey that is both historical and relevant today, journalist and author Rageh Omaar charts the extraordinary story of a man who, in little more than 20 years, changed the course of world history.

In three one-hour episodes that air back-to-back, Omaar follows Muhammad’s footsteps to document his life from his humble beginnings in Mecca, to his struggles with accepting his prophetic role, his flight to Medina, the founding of the first Islamic constitution and his subsequent military and political successes and failures — and to his death and his legacy.

Filmed on location in Saudi Arabia, Jerusalem, Turkey, Syria, the U.S., the United Kingdom and Jordan, the series also draws on the expertise of some of the world’s leading academics and commentators on Islam.

Along with the historical narrative, the film addresses Islam’s role in the world today and explores interpretations of Islamic attitudes toward money, charity, women, social equality, religious tolerance, war and conflict, providing a fascinating, timely and unique insight into the Islamic faith.

“I am extremely pleased to present this exciting and groundbreaking series in the United States,” says Omaar. “The details of Muhammad’s life really are little known, and I hope that my series will — for many — shine a light on the very beginning of Islam, taking viewers to the heart of this faith, illustrating just how Muhammad’s life and legacy are as important today as they were over a thousand years ago.”

“THE LIFE OF MUHAMMAD is an extraordinary film that takes us into the world of Muhammad and explores his faith in the context of his world and life,” says Beth Hoppe, chief programming executive and GM of general audience programming at PBS. “It also allows us to understand more fully how his faith became an inspiration for such a diverse group of people throughout the world.”

THE LAWRENCE WELK SHOW
Airs Saturdays, new season begins August 31, at 7:00 p.m. MT/PT

This month marks the beginning of 27 years of “Champagne Music” on public television.

“Since 1987, more than 2.5 million fans of the longest-running, weekly syndicated music/variety series have been tuning in each week to their local PBS station to watch Lawrence Welk and their favorite Musical Family members sing and dance,” says Bob Allen, executive producer.

“The Lawrence Welk Show” was first broadcast in 1951 on KTLA in Los Angeles. In 1955, the ABC network began airing it nationally. In 1972, Welk formed his own production company and syndicated the show directly to commercial stations until 1982; new Christmas specials continued on commercial television through 1985.
10:00 Death in Paradise

airs Mondays at 8:00 p.m. MT/PT beginning September 23.
Actor Benjamin Bratt narrates the landmark series, LATINO AMERICANS. This is the first major television documentary series to chronicle the rich and varied history of Latinos, whom for 500-plus years have helped shape what is today the United States, and are now the country’s largest minority group. It airs Tuesdays at 8:00 p.m. MT/PT beginning September 17.
And those are my picks for next month.
